

- Day 1 – Local departure then onwards to northern France for an overnight stay.
- Day 2 – Continue south to Bad Serneus, Switzerland for a 6-night stay. B,D
- Day 3 – Davos and Klosters (optional). Morning visit to Davos, which is often home to members of the Royal Family during the winter ski period. Europe’s highest town is also a delight during the summer, being surrounded on all sides by idyllic countryside. In the afternoon, we visit the neighbouring town of Klosters, again a winter favourite with the Royal Family. B,L,D.
- Day 4 – Bregenz and Lake Constance (optional). Close to the borders of Austria, Germany, Switzerland and Liechtenstein, Bregenz nestles on the shore of Lake Constance, the second largest freshwater lake in Europe. Don’t miss the fine lakeside promenade and St. Martin’s Tower. B,L,D
- Day 5 – Swiss Glacier Express (optional). A day out to remember as we board the world-famous Swiss Glacier Express mid-morning from Davos Station via Chur to Andermatt. The train has the recently introduced second-class panoramic viewing carriages, which have oversized windows extending into the roof to provide a first-class view. The carriages also have air-conditioning and their own sound system with headsets for you to use. Your journey on the ‘slowest express train in the world’ climbs through unforgettable scenery to the summit of the Oberalp Massif. Enjoy time also in Andermatt before returning by coach to our hotel. In order to guarantee your place on the train, this trip must be purchased at the time of booking at a cost of £68 per person. B,L,D
- Day 6 – Ticino and Lugano (included). Enjoy fantastic scenic views as we climb the San Bernardino Pass, then join the motorway through the Italian-speaking district of Switzerland, the Ticino area, to Lugano, set beside the blue waters of Lake Lugano. Enjoy the ‘chic’ of the town’s piazzas and promenades, and perhaps take a meal by the lakeside or try a funicular ride up Monte Brè for spectacular views over the Alps. B,L,D
- Day 7 – St. Moritz (included). A morning excursion to the first-class resort of St. Moritz, home in winter to the Cresta Run and famous for its air of elegance. Again, a favourite destination for the rich and famous. B,L,D
- Day 8 – To Belgium for an overnight stay. B
- Day 9 – To Calais and return home. B

B=Breakfast L=Lunch D=Dinner

Tour Includes

- FREE local joining points
- Travel by Executive Coach
- 8 nights’ accommodation with breakfast & 6 evening meals
- 5 packed lunches
- Selection of drinks (e.g. draught beer, house wine, coffee and tea) available free of charge from 6pm until 10pm on a daily basis at your hotel in Bad Serneus
- 2 Included Excursions and visits

Upgrade to and enjoy the Luxury service benefits:

- Travel by Luxury Service luxury coach
- Porterage in all hotels
- Smaller, more personal group

Hotels

- You'll stay for six nights at the 3-star standard Kur Hotel Bad Serneus. Situated on the outskirts of the village of Bad Serneus, in a peaceful location, the hotel retains much of the character of its 500- year history. The local bus, which has a stop outside the hotel, runs a regular service to the village and to Davos and Klosters. The hotel has a restaurant, sun terrace, bar area and indoor sulphur pool (at additional cost). All bedrooms have telephone and T.V. The hotel consists of three connected buildings and all rooms are served by a lift.
- Overnight stays in northern France and Belgium will be in city-style hotels.
- Kur Hotel
- Bad Serneus hotel is located in the Serneus village by the marvelous valley of the river Landquart, near the popular mountain resorts of Klosters and Davos. The hotel is just 1000 meters above sea-level, which makes it most suitable for people who might have problems getting used to the high grounds.